Steady progress toward the target of increasing the number of full-time faculty by 30 net over 5 years from 2019 funded by tuition increase

Trends and targets in the number of university faculty (lecturer and higher positions)

Legend:
- No. of full-time faculty as of May 1 per year
- Target

Bar values (full-time faculty):
- 2018: 309 (309)
- 2019: 314 (304)
- 2020: 319 (295)
- 2021: 324 (298)
- 2022: 329 (306)
- 2023: 334 — 317 (+10*)
- 2024: 340 (Estimated No.)
- 2029: 370

* In addition to 317 faculty members, 10 full-time young faculty members will be appointed for HIAS Bridges Next Project (refer to page3) in Academic Year (AY) 2023.

Breakdown of net increase in faculty by field

(1) Social Data Science (new Faculty)

14 hired — Completed as planned

(2) Strategic Priority Areas* (existing faculty)

8 hired (+1 appointed)

*Economics, Management, Accounting and Finance, Politics and International Relations, Psychology, Data Science, and Global Law

Breakdown of hired and retired

		Retired	Hired	Funded by tuition increase*	HIAS Bridges*
2019	304
2020	295	32	23
2021	298	33	36
2022	306	27	35	(13)
2023	317	21	32	(9)	(2)

*Included in the total