

Establish a world-class faculty (2)

- Steady progress on replacement with new faculty with strong international track records
- As a result, the number of scholarly outputs in English has exceeded the target while maintaining quality (Field-Weighted Citation Impact [FWCI])

Profile of new faculty

Breakdown of 126 appointed faculty (full-time) between May 2019 and May 2023

Other (e.g., professional experience):
24

International track record focus:
102 (81%)

Female faculty:
35 (28%)

Young faculty (under 40)
48 (38%)

Performance indicators for new faculty

Output in English

Average for new faculty
0.93

Average for existing faculty
0.51

Int'l co-authorship

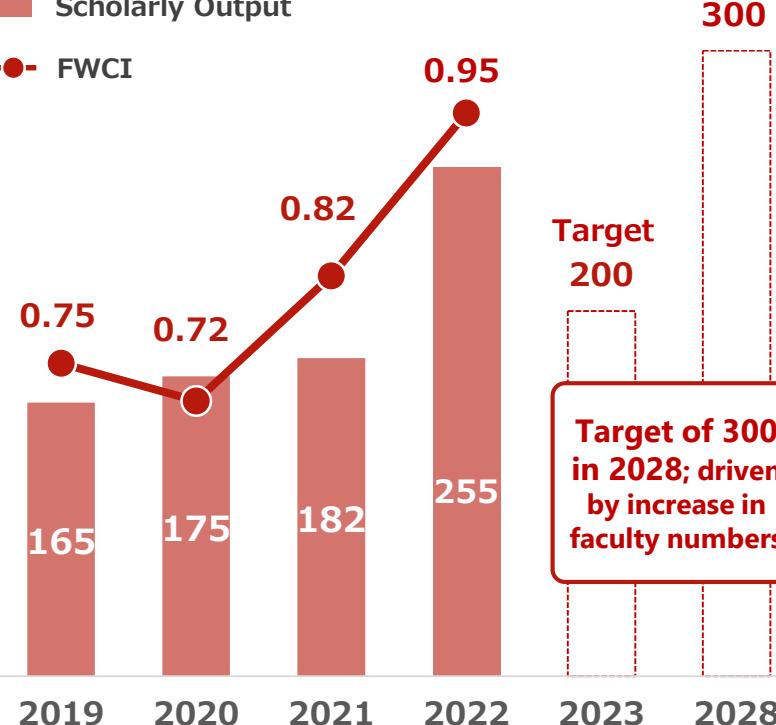

Average for new faculty
38.6%

Average for existing faculty
34.5%

English-Language Scholarly Output and FWCI

Scholarly Output

-•- FWCI

Source: 2018–2022 outputs in the Scopus database (June 5, 2023)

Overall outputs of Hitotsubashi University in the Scopus database (June 5, 2023)