

- Developing world-class professional schools, including internationally accredited MBA programs, to meet growing demand for recurrent education
- Bringing cutting-edge research results back to the Executive Programs

World-Class Business School

The School of Business Administration (SBA) and the School of International Corporate Strategy (ICS) have been accredited by AACSB International. This public university is the first to receive this accreditation.

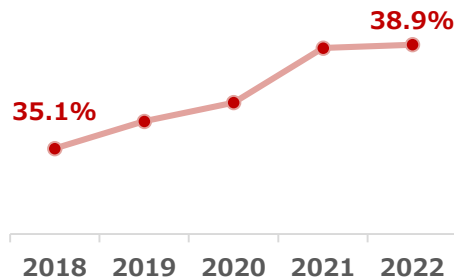

*AACSB International

The Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB) International Accreditation is the world's largest accrediting body for management education, with the longest history as a global accrediting body for business schools

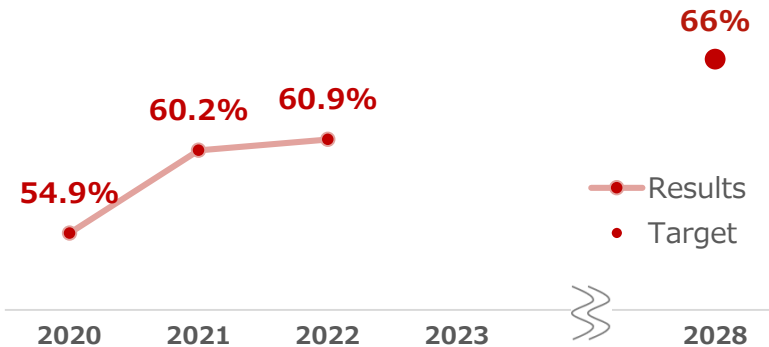

Percentage of working adults among students (graduate students)
38.9%

Data from the National Institution for Academic Degrees and Quality Enhancement of Higher Education

Trends in Percentage

Percentage of enrollees appointed to top management positions after taking the Executive Programs

Survey for participants in HSEP, HFLP-A and B enrolled in AY2019

Hitotsubashi Senior Executive Program (HSEP)

Training program for top management in Japanese companies. Implemented since AY 2002, more than 500 participants have taken the course thus far

Hitotsubashi Financial Leadership Program (HFLP)

To develop the next generation of CFOs; four types of program (A-D) by tier; implemented since FY2015, more than 1,100 participants have taken the course thus far