Report of Activity under the EUIJ Tokyo Project
Title of the Activity:	Open Lecture "Finland in relation with EU and Russia" Project no. ICU2012(2H)-7
Purpose of the Activity:	In connection with Professor Takako Ueta's course on "International History."
Description/Program:	After first showing a short film introducing Finland, the ambassador began his congenial talk focusing largely on geopolitical conditions, in particular the handling of relations with its largest neighbor during World War Two and the cold war, the Soviet Union, and the importance of engaging models and systems. Today, the majority of tourists to Finland come from Russia. The ambassador explained that since the cold war Finland has become a true member of the European community, joining the EU in 1995, and receiving broad safeguards for security, access to Europe's vast marketplace, and benefits for freedom of movement for the Finnish people.
Date(s):	Thursday, 14 February , 2013 11:30-12:40
Universities/Person(s) involved:	Ambassador Jari Gustafsson, Ambassador of Finland to Japan
Place of the Activity:	International Conference Room, Kiyoshi Togasaki Memorial Dialogue House, ICU
Financial resources:	ICU's Budget
Results:	Nearly one hundred students attended the lecture. Some time was reserved at the end for questions and it was possible to have deeper interaction between exchange students from Finland's University of Tampere, with whom ICU has a cooperative agreement, and students to Tampere from ICU.
