3) The others

IV. Proceedings

1) The Agreement on Credit Transfer System between the Institutions of the Consortium (draft)

Following the explanation according to the handout no.1 by Mr. Kato, Hitotsubashi University, discussed on the draft of the preamble and the each articles of the agreement. And then the Executive Committee decided to sign on the contract as soon as possible after making necessary revisions on the draft.

2) Reporting to the EU Delegation to Japan

After the explanation of the handout no.2 and no.3 by Mr. Hirayama, the Executive Committee made the consideration on the details related to the handouts. As for the details of the reporting to the EU Delegation to Japan, the Executive Committee decided as follows:

- a) Half year report in English shall be obligatory to submit to the EU Delegation to Japan. Tsuda College is responsible for arranging and finalizing the report through circulating a draft among universities. With reference material's No2, the deadline of the first report to the EU Delegation to Japan shall be set on the end of May 2011, and the second report shall be on the end of November 2011. To meet these deadlines, member universities are necessarily to send the draft of the first report in English to the EUIJ-Tokyo Office at Hitotsubashi until the end of March 2011.
- b) In order to establish the liaison system among the Institutions, included to make the reports to the EU Delegation to Japan, Hitotsubashi will draw up the mailing list for the Consortium.
- c) The proposal of Mr. Okada, Hitotsubashi University, to renovate the website of the EUIJ-Tokyo Consortium, and to introduce a new software called 'WordPress', which is much more user-friendly and priceless to replace the current system, was permitted at the Committee. In Mr. Okada's explanation, the initial cost to renovate the system would amount to 500,000 Yen, and running cost of the new system would be around 10,000 Yen per month. The member universities of the Consortium will be expected to share the burdens of the initial cost, and Hitotsubashi University will bear the running cost. The EUIJ-Tokyo Office at Hitotsubashi will send a renovated web-site image and inform the details and precise costs later.
- d) In organizing public seminars on the EU and the European Affairs among member universities in the Consortium, it shall be obligatory to attach the name of the "EUIJ-Tokyo Consortium" to publicity materials. Besides, committee decided to keep using the current LOGO.
- e) The EU Delegation to Japan has given permission to use both logos of the EUIJ-Tokyo and the EUSI-Tokyo when universities are concerned with both Consortiums.

3) The others:

- a) Prof. Sugisaki, Tsuda College, proposed to revise the article of the 2nd in the Agreement on Mutual Utilization of Library in EU Institute in Japan-Tokyo Consortium (MLU), which had been expired in September, 2009. Making a new MLU under the new Agreement on Credit Transfer System (CTS) in order to use the assets of the EUIJ Library and books among Universities effectively was corresponding with the enlargement of exchanging subjects in the new CTS of the Consortium from the EU Course to the range including European Affairs. The Executive Committee decided to enlarge the “applicable range of users” and reconsider to revise the article in the agreement of interlibrary access between the Institutions.

- b) Prof. Otsuki, Hitotsubashi University, suggested to submit a proposal to apply for subsidy related on the research and studies of EUIJ to Ministry of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology in Japan as Science Study Fund Subsidy in 2012 Financial Year. As for on this matter the Executive Committee decided to discuss on the next meeting.
- c) Prof. Sugisaki reported that in order to submit the report on the actual development of the EUIJ Consortium to EU Delegation to Japan, Tsuda will send the draft of the report to the Institutions through the mailing list.
- d) Hereafter, the Executive Committee shall be held the meeting once every three months. Next meeting, therefore, shall be arranged to hold on the first half of February 2011.

V. Adjournment

OTSUKI Yasuhiro, the Chairperson adjourned the meeting at 12:00 am.

- 3) Exchanging the EU related subjects in 2011
- 4) Renovation of the website for the EUIJ-Tokyo Consortium
- 5) The others

V. Proceedings

1) The Agreement on Mutual Utilization of Library in EU Institute in Japan-Tokyo Consortium

Prof. Sugisaki proposed to renew the Agreement on Mutual Utilization of Library in EU Institute in Japan-Tokyo Consortium (MLU), which had been expired in September, 2009. Making a new MLU under the new EU Institute in Japan (EUIJ)-Tokyo Consortium Agreement (EUIJ Agreement) had been raised by Prof. Sugisaki at the first meeting. The draft has been circulated through Universities and revised, was decided at this meeting to finalize the procedures in each university and to sign on the contract as soon as possible after the permission in every university. The date of the Agreement will be retrospective to the same day of the EUIJ Agreement. The MLU Agreement will be signed in turn by the Director of each Library.

2) The Report of Activity under the EUIJ-Tokyo Consortium for the EU Delegation to Japan

In the First Meeting, the Executive Committee decided to submit Reports to the EU Delegation to Japan twice a year in May and in November. The First Report will be submitted by 31st May 2010. Mr. Sakuma, Tokyo University of Foreign Studies, explained procedures of writing and submitting the Report with the handout no.2 and did Mr. Sugisaki about the formula in English. The both were accepted and decided that in order to submit The First Report on 31st May, 2011, each university will have to present the draft report of the period from April 1, 2010 to March 31, 2011, to the Office at Hitotsubashi University by the end of April.

3) Exchanging the EU related subjects in 2011

Refer to the handout no.3, the EU related subjects in 2011 were accepted and decided to be launched after supplementary explained.

4) Renovation of the website for the EUIJ-Tokyo Consortium

With the handout no.4, Mr. Okada, Hitotsubashi University, explained on the introduction of 'Word Press' software, which will be less expensive and easier to renovate than the present system and this was accepted at the meeting. The initial cost to renovate the system will be amounted to 500,000 Yen and the running cost of the new system will be 10,000 Yen per month. The Institution of the Consortium will bear the initial cost with evenly shared by the four universities, and the running cost will be paid wholly by Hitotsubashi University, which were both accepted at the meeting.

5) Others

- a) Prof. Otsuki, the Chairman, submitted the proposal of the Hitotsubashi University for using the name of the Consortium as one of the project members with Hitotsubashi University. This proposal of using the name of the Consortium in the project of “Training the EU economic analyst: Constructing an Intellectual Platform in Business, Policy Assessment and Academics”, which would be applied to the Budgetary Request for the Ministry of Education, have been accepted at the meeting. That no burden would be raised to any member universities was explained by Prof. Otsuki and it was accepted. Another proposal concerned this matter, adding the EUSI Tokyo as the members of the subjects in this Hitotsubashi Project, was also accepted at the Meeting.
- b) Prof. Otsuki proposed the idea of preparation for applying to the subsidy related project on the research and studies of EUIJ to Ministry of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology in Japan as Science Study Fund Subsidy in 2012 Financial Year. He proposed that Prof. Souma, Tokyo University of Foreign Studies, as the chair of the Research Project would prepare for the application. Prof. Souma would take into consideration.
- c) Preparation for offering the European study subjects in the Consortium in 2012 was necessary in early period of 2011, therefore, the first reference of the subjects would be collected by the end of March at the Mr. Otsuki, as he explained. After the first reference, the Executive Committee will discuss the subjects to be offered in 2012, which will be decided by autumn this year.
- d) Next meeting shall be arranged to hold in the first half of May, 2011.

AGREEMENT on CREDIT TRANSFER SYSTEM

between

Hitotsubashi University, International Christian University, Tokyo University of Foreign Studies and Tsuda College

With the purpose of bringing up the next generation with a broader knowledge and deeper understanding of the European Union (EU) and European affairs, under the EU Institute in Japan (EUIJ)-Tokyo Consortium (hereinafter “the Consortium”) Agreement, which states that they may perform subject inauguration to collaborate with each other in an education program relating to the European Union (EU course) and involves promotion of the credit transfer system for subjects relating to research on Europe, Hitotsubashi University, International Christian University, Tokyo University of Foreign Studies and Tsuda College agree as follows;

1. Participating institutions

- (1) Hitotsubashi University
- (2) International Christian University
- (3) Tokyo University of Foreign Studies
- (4) Tsuda College

2 . Title of accepted students

The title of students accepted under this Agreement shall be determined in accordance with the guidelines of the HOST institution. (Hereinafter, the students will be referred to as “non-degree students”.)

3. Eligibility to apply as a non-degree student

To apply as a non-degree student, students must have completed at least two years of undergraduate study in the HOME institution at the time of their enrollment in the credit transfer system (however, in the case of an ICU student who enrolled in September (Fall Semester), the student shall be required to complete at least 2 semesters of the first year) or be graduate students enrolled in a master’s course or doctoral course (including courses where the first and second semesters or stages are separate), excluding auditing students, research students and other non-degree students admitted for career development.

4. Enrollment of non-degree students

- (1) Students who intend to apply as a non-degree student shall be required to complete the application procedure for enrollment in this credit transfer system by the deadline set by the HOME institution.
- (2) The HOME institution will select students to apply as non-degree students, and will lodge enrollment requests with the president of the HOST institution or the person in charge of the department related to the credit transfer system of the HOST institution.
- (3) The HOST institution reserves the right to determine the number of non-degree student enrollments within a range which will not disturb the lessons of the HOST institution.
- (4) The HOST institution shall notify the HOME institution of the acceptance or rejection of non-degree students.
- (5) The HOME institution shall promptly notify students whether their application for enrollment as non-degree students has been accepted or rejected by the HOST institution.

5. Study courses and number of transfer credits

- (1) The subjects applicable for non-degree students shall be limited to subjects offered at the HOST institution which relate to the European Union (EU course) or the research of European affairs.
- (2) The maximum number of transfer credits that non-degree students are allowed shall be determined by the HOST institution.

6. Course study and examination methods

The course study and examination methods for non-degree students shall be determined by the HOST institution.

7. Term of study for credit transfer system

- (1) The term of study as a non-degree student for the EU course shall start at the time when the non-degree student enrolls in the EU course and begins to study at the HOST institution, and end at the time when the non-degree student graduates from or finishes at his or her HOME institution.
- (2) The term of study as a non-degree student for subjects relating to the research of European affairs shall be the period of the semester that the non-degree student is enrolled in the subjects.

8. Acknowledgement of completion of EU course study

- (1) In order to acknowledge the completion of the EU course study, the HOME institution shall issue non-degree students who have completed the course with a certificate. The format of the certificate shall be determined separately.
- (3) In order to fulfill the requirements of the EU course study, non-degree students shall be required to complete at least 12 credits of EU course subjects, including subjects relating to the research of European affairs which the HOST institution offers. In addition, non-degree students shall be required to graduate from undergraduate courses or complete graduate courses in accordance with the guidelines of their HOME institution.

9. Granting of credit for non-degree students

- (1) The granting of grades and credit received by non-degree students shall be determined by the HOST institution.
- (2) The recognition of the credit received by non-degree students shall be determined by the HOME institution.
- (3) The HOST institution shall notify the HOME institution of the grades received by non-degree students.

10. Examination fees, entrance fees and tuition fees

Examination fees, entrance fees and tuition fees for non-degree students shall not be subject to levies.

11. Implementation of examinations

- (1) The practices for the implementation of entry examinations, supplementary examinations and re-examinations for non-degree students shall be determined in accordance with the guidelines of the HOST institution.
- (2) In cases where the date of a HOME institution's examination falls on the same date as an examination of the HOST institution for non-degree students, the HOME institution shall take the measure of implementing a supplementary examination for that subject.

12. Issue of student identification card

The HOST institution shall issue non-degree students with a student identification card.

13. Use of facilities and accommodation

The HOST institution shall afford non-degree students the facilities and accommodation required for convenience of study.

14. Date of implementation of agreement

This Agreement shall come into force on April 1 2010.

15. Term, revision and abolition of Agreement

(1) The revision or abolition of this Agreement is subject to discussion between the presidents of the institutions involved.

(2) This Agreement shall be reviewed every 5 years.

April 1 2010

To certify the conclusion of this agreement, four copies were drawn up and each participant university must hold one agreement.

Report of Activity under the EUIJ Tokyo Project

Title of the Activity:	EUIJ TSUDA Open Lecture series "The EU and Regionalism" Project no. Tsuda2010-1
Purpose of the Activity:	To promote understanding between the EU and Japan
Description/Program:	We have been conducting The EUIJ TSUDA Open Lecture series "The EU and Regionalism" since 2004. This activity is carried out as EUSI/EUIJ Tsuda Open Lecture since 2009. The lectures keep providing multinational topics and understandings on Europe to audience.
Date(s):	The 12th Lecture: 3 rd October, 2009 The 13th Lecture: 4 th November, 2009 The 14th Lecture: 23 rd January, 2010 The 15th Lecture: 26 th June, 2010
Universities/Person(s) involved:	Professor Takamoto SUGISAKI
Place of the Activity:	Kodaira and Sendagaya Campuses at Tsuda College
Financial resources:	EUSI
Results:	Approximately 30 citizens including regular attendants and EUIJ consortium students attended each seminar and had fruitful exchange of views on each theme. A series of the lectures was beneficial as public relation activities for EUSI/EUIJ and Tsuda College to enhance Tsuda's academic contribution to the public.
Future perspectives:	We would like to continue to organize this lecture series to promote mutual understanding and outreach of the EU to the public and academics.
