Report of Activity under the EUJ Tokyo Project

Title of the Activity:	Activation of Sumitomo Mitsui Banking Corporation Sponsored Lectures “Management of Innovation and creativity in EU” Project no. Hitotsubashi2015(2H)-1
Purpose of the Activity:	The EU has a key role in international economic relationships. Lectures on its activities will inspire our students (graduates, and undergraduates) to focus their studies on the EU. They also may help them to grow as Global Leaders. (cf. http://www2.econ.hit-u.ac.jp/~smbc/en/index.html)
Description/Program:	This course aims to analyse how innovation management is fostered by creative organizational culture in EU, U.S. The course objectives include developing your understanding on the process of innovation management in cultural entrepreneurship climate. The students will review the innovation management process and analyse how to build a business model. Examples will be taken from mostly American and European business companies. Readings include a combination of analytic articles and case studies.
Date(s):	Winter Semester, 2015
Universities/Person(s) Involved:	Supervisor: Prof. Yasuhiro Otsuki (Hitotsubashi University) Prof. Annie Garanto (Université Paris Ouest Nanterre la Défense)
Place of the Activity:	Hitotsubashi University
Financial Resources:	Sumitomo Mitsui Banking Corporation / Ministry of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology
Results:	Students have acquired so many aspects on EU Economy from the point of view of innovation management, which helped them to develop their own academic activities.
Future Perspectives:	This lecture series will be triannually continued.
